CPR CLASS

Whata fantastic time on 2/2/19! The club would like to thank Brian Bevan's brother, Dan, for leading our class nongratis. Dan is a CPR Instructor certified with the American Heart Assn., as well as an RN, and has been offering classes for the past 10 yrs. Nineteen members and friends attended his informative and amusingly presented class. Maybe we can do this again for the benefit of more members.

Thank you to Mary and Frank who recently celebrated their 25th anniversary, and threw US a party!!!

Here's to our newest probationary members!

Congratulations to Brad, winner of the first leg of 2019 Air Soft. When not shooting, Brad likes romance novels, walks on a warm beach and helping with clubhouse decor.

Second air soft session, held on Thursdays at 7pm, started on 2/21. Come out and have a good time!

Great attendance at the P&P meeting 2/13/19. The Grey Rules were started by Bart Sklar and are now overseen by R.O.N. Remember, 2 meetings in your probationary year are required. All the other times, just come for fun!

These 2 are certainly having fun at the P&P meeting!

SOCIAL NIGHT 2/15/19

Thanks again to the Kitchenettes for a delicious meal of spaghetti & meatballs, salad & rolls!

A Kitchenette's view of the world

Thanks for the DELICIOUS DESSERT DONATIONS!

We even celebrated a special birthday!

One evening a father overheard his son saying his prayers "God bless Mommy, Daddy and Grammy. Goodbye Grampa." Well, the father thought it was strange, but he soon forgot about it. The next day, the Grandfather died. A month later the father heard his son saying prayers again: "God bless Mommy. God bless Daddy. Goodbye Grammy." The next day the grandmother died. Well, the father was getting more than a little worried about the whole situation. One week later, the father once again overheard his sons prayers. "God Bless Mommy. Good bye Daddy." This nearly gave the father a heart attack. He didn't say anything but he got up early to go to work, so that he would miss the traffic. He stayed all through lunch and dinner. Finally after midnight he went home. He was still alive! When he got home he appologised to his wife. "I am sorry Honey. I had a very bad day at work today." "You think you've had a bad day? YOU THINK YOU'VE HAD A BAD DAY!?" the wife yelled, "The mailman dropped dead on my doorstep this morning!" womenafter50/facebook

Work Day 2/16/19

According to Keith?

We had an amazing attendance today at February's work day. Brad spent the first hour reviewing the new John Deere tractor with everyone. After that it was off to the tractor barn with Brian, Grinder and Rosko to wrap up the installation of the fireplace heater. Others were playing with the Toys in the Attic (can you remember whose band had that album name?) organizing the years of valuable items stored there. Nick installed some USB phone charger receptacles, donated by Captain Rich, in the kitchen and at the bar, while Robin made sure we had plenty of rock salt in place in the breezeway into the club house (hopefully we won't need it...) Some of the newest members (Sean and Jeff) tackled cleaning out the fridge that was formerly in the tractor barn. I am going to spare you the before and after pictures of that just in case you have a weak stomach. All in all, it was an amazing day!

Nice ride to Hannums after a productive work day at the club. They had an ice carver that cut out an amazing likeness of a bike.

COMING UP IMMEDIATELY!
